

Diane W. Hutcherson

Diane is currently an active Sojourner (a mission of the Churches of Christ) traveling with her husband of 49 years, Paul Hutcherson. She has been a member of the Lord's Church since 1958 and has taught Bible classes for children and adults, VBS classes, and coordinated workshop programs for more than 50 years. She has a degree in Elementary Education from Stetson University in Deland, Florida. She has taught elementary school in several counties as she traveled with her military husband. She has taught English as a second language to adult professionals, served on several state workgroups and councils and developed state level policy for Florida's subsidized child care program and was part of the state team that implemented Florida's Voluntary Pre-kindergarten program. Most recently Diane retired after 12 years as Executive Director for the Escambia County Early Learning Coalition. She has done extensive training for early learning professionals and community partners interested in supporting young children. She is a Florida native but is currently living in Prosperity, SC. Diane is the proud mother of 2 boys and 5 grandchildren.
